Creative Colouring Volume 2

While tidying up some papers, retired commercial artist and author, Lionel Hartley, discovered a folder of his illustrations hidden away since 1970. Following the interest in Creative Colouring, it was decided to publish a second volume using these over 100 additional illustrations.

Many of these graphics had already been used in books, magazines and activity pages and yet the copyright was retained by the graphic artist. Some were drawn too large for scanning and to be included were photographed instead.

They have been reproduced here as printable pages for your enjoyment. They may be printed for use but not published. Enjoy.
— Lionel Hartley, 2005.
